

২৪ শ্রাবণ ১৪৩২

DU in Media

08 August 2025

The New Nation

Dhaka University Vice-Chancellor Professor Dr. Niaz Ahmed Khan handed over the scholarship cheques to the recipients.

■ NN photo

Two insolvent DU students awarded Tk 50,000 as scholarships

BSS, Dhaka

Two insolvent students from separate departments under the Faculty of Social Sciences at Dhaka University (DU) have been awarded Tk 50,000 each as scholarships. The scholarships were granted from the 'Md. Munirul Islam and Shamsumulai Begum Trust Fund', established at Dhaka University to support financially disadvantaged students, a press release said. The award ceremony took place today at the Vice-Chancellor's conference room where Dhaka University Vice-Chancellor Professor Dr. Niaz Ahmed Khan attended the event as the chief guest.

He handed over the scholarship cheques to the recipients. The scholarship recipients are Md. Subhan Ali Hridoy, a first-year student of the Department of Public Administration and Md. Shahab Pradhan, a first-year student of the Department of Population Sciences.

The new Age

Two DU needy students awarded scholarships

Staff Correspondent

TWO indigent students of two departments of the faculty of social sciences of Dhaka University were awarded a one-time trust fund scholarship of Tk 25,000 each at a programme at the DU on Thursday.

They were awarded this scholarship from the Md Munirul Islam-Shamsumulai Begum Trust Fund established at Dhaka University, said a press release.

DU vice-chancellor Professor Niaz Ahmed Khan was present as chief guest at the programme at the VC's meeting room today and handed over the scholarship cheques to the students.

The recipients are Md Subhan Ali Hridoy, a first-year student of the department of public administration, and Md Shahab Pradhan, a first-year student of the department of population sciences.

Presided over by DU treasurer, Professor M. Jahangir Alam Chowdhury, dean of the faculty of social sciences Professor Taliyebur Rahman, chairperson of the department of development studies Professor Nayem Sultan, and donor of the trust fund and chairperson of the department of women and gender studies Umme Bushra Faizah Sultan, were present at the programme.