

PhD Proposal Format
Bangabandhu Overseas Scholarship
University of Dhaka

1. Cover Page:

- Title of the Proposal
- Name, Designation and Department/Institute of the Candidate
- Name of the University and Program, Department/Institute from where applicant received unconditional offer letter

2. Table of Contents

3. Summary of the proposal (max. 250 words with 5 to 7 Keywords)

4. Proposal should not exceed 5000 words and should be written in Times New Roman with font size 12.

4. Introduction

5. Background of the research or Problem Statement

6. Research Questions and Objectives

7. Theoretical framework/Analytical/Operational Framework, if required.

8. Detailed Methodology a. Study area/site b. Research Methods c. Data Collection techniques: Sources of data and data collection tools and techniques, d. Detailed Sampling techniques: sample size, machine/equipments, materials and technologies to be used (in details)

9. Information of the Supervisor (Name, Affiliation, specialization, etc.)

10. Opinion of the supervisor regarding the research proposal (should have the reflections in the email correspondences)

11. How would this proposed degree and field of research contribute to your present profession/department or institute and aligned to national development?

12. References (should be arranged in alphabetical order using Harvard style).

13. Report of the similarity index to be scrutinized through Turnitin Software and the similarity index must not exceed 20% excluding Title and References.

14. Signature of the Applicant

15. Signature of the Chairman/Director of the entity