DU VC meets Chief Adviser

City Desk.

Dhaka University's (DU) Vice-Chancellor (VC) Professor Dr Niaz Ahmed Khan met with Chief Adviser (CA) Dr Muhammad Yunus at the State Guest House Jamuna on Saturday.

The meeting took place as part of regular updates on university affairs and coincided with the farewell of the Chief Adviser at the conclusion of the interim government's tenure.

During the meeting, Vice-Chancellor expressed his gratitude to the chief adviser for his unwavering support and cooperation over the past one and a half years.

He briefed Dr Yunus on recent initiatives taken to enhance education, research and student welfare at the university.

As a token of appreciation, Dr Khan presented a commemorative publication highlighting Dhaka University's significant achievements, including its largest-ever development projects, to the Chief Adviser, as well as presented a portrait, artistically painted by Alaptagin Tushar, as a gesture of respect and admiration.
